Form ADV Part 3 – Client Relationship Summary September 8, 2026

Item 1: Introduction

UPPER LEFT WEALTH MANAGEMENT, LLC is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser, offering advisory accounts and services. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important that you understand the differences. This document gives you a summary of the types of services and fees we offer. Please visit www.investor.gov/CRS for free, simple tools to research firms and financial professionals, as well as educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Item 2: Relationships and Services

Questions to ask us: Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me? What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean? What investment services and advice can you provide me?

Our firm primarily offers the following investment advisory services to retail clients: portfolio management (we review your portfolio, manage your investment strategy, and investments); financial planning (we assess your financial situation and provide advice to meet your goals). We also provide non-discretionary consulting and advisory services to employer-sponsored retirement plans, including 401(k) plans. As part of our standard services, we typically monitor client accounts on a daily basis. Our firm has discretionary management without any material limitations. We primarily invest client assets in ETFs and mutual funds across our three model portfolios. Our minimum account size is $1,000,000. Randy Kurtz is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™. For more detailed information, please also see our Form ADV Part 2A ("Brochure"), specifically Items 4 & 7.

Item 3: Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct

Questions to ask us: Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me? How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them? What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How do you make money?

Our fees vary depending on the amount of assets in your account; the more assets you have in your advisory account, the more you will pay us and thus we have an incentive to increase those assets in order to increase our fee. All fees are paid monthly in advance. You pay our fees even if you do not have any transactions and the advisory fee paid to us generally does not vary based on the type of investments selected. Please also see Items 4, 5, 6, 7 & 8 of our Brochure.

Some investments (e.g., mutual funds, variable annuities, etc.) impose additional fees (e.g., transactional fees and product-level fees) that reduce the value of your investment over time. The same goes for any additional fees you pay to a custodian. Additionally, you will pay transaction fees, if applicable, when we buy or sell an investment for your account. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. Please also see our Brochure for additional details.

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. As we charge an AUM fee, the more assets you have in your advisory account, the more you will pay us and thus we have an incentive to increase those assets in order to increase our fee.

We recommend that clients custody assets at Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. Schwab provides us with services and other benefits at no charge, some of which benefit our firm but not your account directly. This creates a potential conflict of interest, which we address by putting your interests first, as described in our Brochure. In addition, our owner also owns DataDriven Advisor, LLC (d/b/a Moneypacer), which provides automated financial planning services and sells tools to financial advisors. Primarily, we and our financial professionals receive cash compensation from the advisory services we provide to you because of the advisory fees we receive from you. This compensation may vary based on different factors, such as those listed above in this Item. Please also see Item 10 of our Brochure for additional details.

Item 4: Disciplinary History

Questions to ask us: As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?

We do not have legal or disciplinary events. Visit https://www.investor.gov/ for a free, simple search tool to research us and our financial professionals.

Item 5: Additional Information

Questions to ask us: Who is my primary contact person? Is he or she a representative of an investment adviser or a broker-dealer? Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?

For additional information on our advisory services, see our Brochure available at https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/288762 and any individual brochure supplement your representative provides.
